office or send somebody in his came over and they'd slip $100 in your pocket and unbeknown to you it was marked, you'd both go to the pen, is that right?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Well, in the committee, I said if they had cases like that, they wanted to know what to do with the money, I said give it to me.

SENATOR BARNETT: I remember that, but I'm talking about now. We've got specifics.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I was specific, I would think the candidate would jeopardize his welfare and the ability to hold office if it was proven that he took the money.

SENATOR BARNETT: In other words, maybe this should have "knowingly" in it as we have done before.

SENATOR CARPENTER: No, no, no.

SENATOR BARNETT: You don't want that in there?

SENATOR CARPENTER: No, no, no.

SENATOR BARNETT: Okay.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Take it like it is or divorce yourself from the girl.

SENATOR BARNETT: Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Are there any amendments, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: No amendments.

PRESIDENT: Are you read to vote? A roll call vote.

CLERK: Roll call vote.

(End of Belt #7A)

(Begin Belt #8A)

CLERK: 67 ayes, 7 nays, 15 not voting, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: LB614 is advanced. The bill's LB677. Senator Kelly, do you want to take up your bill.

SENATOR KELLY: Mr. President, LB677, addresses the same area as Senator Carpenter's bill. However, it is a much more far-reaching bill and it's my understanding that we're going to take non-controversial bills. I can't believe that this would be a controversial measure but it might be. I ask that we pass it over.

PRESIDENT: Okay, we place or pass over LB677. The next bill is LB855.

CLERK: Read LB855. There are no committee amendments or other amendments.

PRESIDENT: Senator Richendifer.

SENATOR RICHENDIFER: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature. This allows the State Historical Society to accept the property
